Maslow's Hierarchy and Coordinated School Health framework for helping the whole child be successful at school... and in life!

classroom teachers counse ors need for cipals PE teachers parents nurses librarians social wo music teachers art teachers accassation food service personnel assistant principals coaches custodians Experience purpose, meaning and realising Secretaries mentors curriculum sta administrators all inner potentials. staff development provider school board receptionists business office work classroom aides Esteem Need The need to be a unique individual with maintenance staft hool resource officers self-respect and to enjoy general esteem from others. athletic trainers school volunteers groundskeepers pecial education staff Love and belonging needs The need for belonging, to receive and give love appreciation, friendship. faith leaders community members chnology staff wellness sta Security Need
The basic need for social security in a family and a society anth educators publication that protects against hunger and violence. psycholog es employees speech insurance staff The physiological needs The need for food, water, shelter and clothing diagnosticians homebound teachers grandparents

Together, we are the foundation for student success!

In Coordinated School Health, all eight components function together to provide a sound structure and team approach for ensuring optimal health in the school setting.

Healthy kids - better learners!

Coordinated School Health